

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

ERICK M. BROWN,

Case No. 2:25-cv-01217-GMN-DJA

Petitioner,

V.

THE STATE OF NEVADA, et al.,

ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT PURSUANT TO RULE 60(b)

Respondents.

11 This action was initiated, pro se, on July 3, 2025, by Erick M. Brown, an individual
12 incarcerated at Nevada’s Southern Desert Correctional Center. On that date, Brown filed
13 an Application to Proceed in Forma Pauperis and a “Writ of Course.” ECF Nos. 1, 1-1.
14 On July 9, Brown filed a “Motion to Disqualify or Recuse.” ECF No. 3. And on July 10, 15 Brown filed a document entitled “Lack of Subject Matter Jurisdiction in Support of 16 Complaint,” which includes a “Motion to Submit Documents.” ECF No. 4.

In an Order entered on July 16, 2025, the Court determined that Brown was able to pay the filing fee for this action and denied his in forma pauperis application. ECF No. 5 at 2. The Court went on to screen Brown's petition under Rule 4 of the Rules Governing Section 2254 Cases in the United States District Courts, found his claims to be palpably incredible, patently frivolous, and false, and summarily dismissed this action. Id. at 2–3. The Court denied Brown's motions. Id. at 3. The judgment was entered that same day. ECF No. 6. Brown filed a notice of appeal on July 23, 2025. ECF No. 7.

24 On July 24, 2025, Brown filed a motion for relief from judgment under Federal Rule
25 of Civil Procedure 60(b). Under Rule 60(b), the Court may relieve a party from a final 26 Judgment or Order for the following reasons: (1) mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or 27 excusable neglect; (2) newly discovered evidence that, with reasonable diligence, could 28 not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under Rule 59(b); (3) fraud

1 (whether previously called intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or misconduct by an
2 opposing party; (4) the judgment is void; (5) the judgment has been satisfied, released or
3 discharged; it is based on an earlier judgment that has been reversed or vacated; or
4 applying it prospectively is no longer equitable; or (6) any other reason that justifies relief.
5 Brown's arguments for relief under Rule 60(b) are without merit. Brown does not
6 demonstrate any reason for this Court to grant relief from the judgment dismissing this 7 action.

8 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Petitioner's Motion for Relief from Judgment
9 Pursuant to Rule 60(b) is DENIED. Petitioner is denied a certificate of appealability with 10 respect to this Order.

12 DATED THIS 25 day of July, 2025.
